

BLenheim PALACE

Private Events at Blenheim Palace

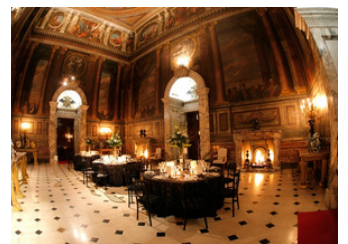

The Great Hall

The magnificent Great Hall is the main entrance to the Palace and can provide an impressive dining space for up to 120 guests or for a drinks reception alongside dining in the wonderful Long Library. This is also the starting point for private Palace tours.

Prices from £29,300

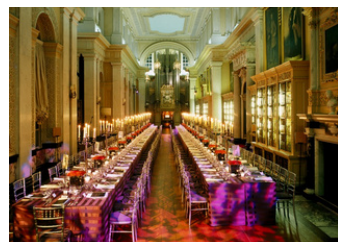

The Saloon

The Saloon is the State Dining Room in which the Marlborough family still celebrate special occasions. The entire room was painted by Louis Laguerre and works perfectly for an intimate dinner or in conjunction with the Great Hall for larger celebrations.

Prices from £29,300

The Long Library

One of the longest rooms in any British stately home, the Long Library is home to 10,000 books, the magnificent Willis Organ and spectacular views of water terraces designed by Achille Duchêne. A perfect setting to enjoy fine dining for up to 250 guests, large drinks receptions or alongside a marquee for much bigger events.

Marquees are hugely versatile and are suitable for various elements of your event, from drinks receptions to dining and dancing for hundreds of guests, each marquee is created to suit your needs.

Palace Restorations

In 2026 our £12 million roof restoration project continues, protecting the heritage of Britain's Greatest Palace for future generations. Temporary coverings are in place throughout 2026 and the Saloon is unavailable for hire until 2027 whilst this essential conservation work takes place.
