SENSORY GARDEN ACTIVITIES

Take your time today and feel free to explore. Perhaps spend time simply sitting down and becoming more aware of all the sights, sounds and smells around you; or you may like to explore all the different textures by touch.

ACTIVITY

Close your eyes and draw what you can hear

LET YOUR SENSES GO WILD

 What patterns and shapes can you see?

 How many types of flowers can you find?

 What textures can you feel in the play area?

 Which fruit is growing in the Walled Garden?

 Can you smell the lavender growing in the garden?

 How many different types of birds can you hear?

 What was your favourite view of Blenheim Palace?

 Can you tell which season it is by looking at the trees?

Why not take some photos and share them with us.
